SERGE KOUSSEVITZKY

says:

"The Baldwin Piano or the Orchestra, as well as for my own use, is perfection—a truly orchestral tone, round, full and of magnificent resonance and color. I consider it a great work of musical art."

ARTHUR FIEDLER
says:

"With its beautiful resonance and rich tone the Baldwin lends itself gallantly to solo, orchestral and choral performances."

The Boston "Pops" Orchestra
uses the Baldwin piano exclusively

Today's Great Piano

One by one the great piano masters of the present generation choose the Baldwin. This choice is made by ear and by touch rather than by tradition. This growing preference for the Baldwin is in part because its makers do not rest upon old laurels but continue, year after year, their never-ending search for perfection.

PRESENTS

NATIVE VINTAGE WINES

We are in the business of buying and selling — among other things — American wines. In building up our list we have applied the same principles that went into the buying of our imported wines. We have studied the sources of supply on the ground, we have taken our time, we have tasted, compared, eliminated, selected. Rightly or wrongly we believe our offerings to be unsurpassed both from the point of view of quality and satisfaction. We recommend the Inglenook, Wente Bros. and Widmer's wines listed in the Pops Menu under "Selected Vintage Wines."

S. S. P. GOLD COAST WINES

S.S.P. Gold Coast Wines are American wines of established reputation, carefully selected and bottled under our own House label. On the Pops menu.

★ GREAT WESTERN CHAMPAGNE

★ Today Great Western New York State Champagne is unquestionably the best known Champagne in America. It is a true Champagne made by the French method of slow fermentation in the bottle. From the 83-year-old cellars of the Pleasant Valley Wine Co. On the Pops menu.

★ GOLD COAST VERMOUTH

★ We offer our Gold Coast American Vermouth, which we believe may be used satisfactorily in place of imported. Dry or Sweet.

★ OVERLAND CIGARS

★ No other cigar we have offered in our existence of 112 years has so readily met the approval of those who want a mild cigar of quality for everyday use. Finest imported Cuban tobacco filler in a delicate Sumatra wrapper gives a delicious combination of flavor.

GLEN GARRY

BLENDED SCOTCH WHISKY

Glen Garry is an outstanding blend of aged Scotch Whiskies, selected and blended by experts whose skill is proven by the soft, mellow purity of flavor of this choice Scotch. The youngest whisky in the bottle has been matured in wood for 8 years before being bottled. 86.8 proof. Imported by S. S. Pierce Co. for 50 years.

MAINTAINING CONTACTS

with previous customers, retaining good will jeopardized by interrupted production, finding new markets for "converted" industries — these and countless other institutional functions are made possible by the printed word.

Advertising is thus even more important now than in normal times. You will not be unpatriotic, because if we obtain the paper for your advertising — and the chances are good that we can—then you may be assured that it is not needed by the Government.

Printing buyers will find that the Geo. H. Ellis Co. can help printing carry its increasingly important role.

Gold Seal produces two champagnes—Special Dry and Brut. They are produced by the traditional French method of natural fermentation in the bottle. Special Dry is sparkling with a semi-sweet bouquet to please the popular taste. Brut is a distinctly dry champagne with fine bouquet that appeals to the connoisseur. It has all the natural flavor of the choicest grapes.

Gold Seal Sparkling Burgundy is a glorious blend of choice red wines. Rich, red and robust, its dainty, sparkling, moderately sweet bouquet makes it a very popular dinner wine.

Gold Seal's sparkling and still wines are produced in the "Champagne District of America."

POP-OVERS

SEMPER FIDELIS. Perhaps the most far-reaching act of Chester A. Arthur as twenty-second President of the United States was an order to his Marine Band leader, John Philip Sousa. For as a result the world gained this march masterpiece.

At White House receptions, held in the East Room, musicians had customarily played "Hail to the Chief" to announce the approach of the Chief Executive.

"Neither I nor any bandmaster before me had dared to break the precedent," Sousa recounts in his biography, "Marching Along."

"President Arthur left his guests in the East Room one evening, and coming out into the corridor beckoned to me. "What piece did you play when we went in to dinner?" he asked.

"Hail to the Chief," Mr. President.

"Do you consider it a suitable air?"

"No, sir," I answered. "It was selected long ago on account of its name, and not on account of its character. It is a boat song, and lacks modern military character either for reception or a parade."

"Then change it!" said he, and walked away.

"I wrote the 'Presidential Polonaise' for White House indoor affairs, and the 'Semper Fidelis' March for review purposes outdoors. The latter is the official march adopted by the Marine Corps, by order of the general commanding."

HORA. A form of Rumanian folk music, which serves both for singing and the performance of a round-dance. Holding each other by the hand or the waist, the dancers form a circle with the musicians in the centre, playing on plucked and bowed instruments, and perhaps a bagpipe. The basically lively rhythm may reach a mad pace, but an air of sadness persists in the melody, which shifts from major to minor or modal scales.

"NUTCRACKER" SUITE is one of those universally acknowledged treasures which began with a pretty tepid reception (in 1892). Originally these dainty morsels were part of a complete score for a ballet of the same name. The choreograph was devised by Marius Petipa, the veteran dictator of ballet in St. Petersburg, from "The Nutcracker and the Mouse King," a fairy tale re-told by Alexander Dumas, the Elder, from the German of E. T. A. Hoffman. Not only the ballet script, but precisely the number of measures of music for each episode, was received by the composer from Petipa. This must have some bearing on the fact that Tchaikovsky had toiled on the music for ten months, after boasting he would complete it in five days. When the ballet finally got into production, Petipa fell ill. After the casual reception to the ballet, Tchaikovsky culled a suite from the score, altering the original sequence of some parts, for greater effectiveness in concert performance. Heard in this form on a symphony program by the Russian Music Society shortly after the appearance of the ballet, the music drew demands for encores for five of the six numbers.

This is the story of the ballet. At a Christmas party, toys are distributed to a family's children and their guests. Marie somehow prefers to dolls and other gifts a fancifully designed nutcracker. When the boys break it, she treats it like an injured child, putting it to bed and rocking it to sleep under the Christmas tree. Sleepless herself, she steals downstairs to see if her patient is all right. Midnight strikes, and the toys, honeycake dolls and the nutcracker come to life. The Mouse King and his army attack them, as they rally under the leadership of Nutcracker. They are on the brink of defeat, when Marie slays the Mouse King with her slipper. Instantly Nutcracker becomes a handsome prince. He whisks Marie away to the land of his people, which is the Kingdom of Sweets and Tidbits, in the Jam Mountain region, ruled by the Sugarplum Fairy. There Marie is entertained by the dancing of the inhabitants, to the music which forms most of the sections of the concert suite.

BOURIATI. They are the inhabitants of the Autonomous Socialist Soviet Buriat Mongol Republic, to south of Siberia, established as such in 1923. They are hardy herdsmen, trappers and fishermen—slant-eyed, short, broad-shouldered. The major part of their country and their mode of life remind one of Switzerland. Reinhold Gliere published his tribute to them in 1940. The former Imperial and present autonomous regime of the country are symbolized by use of the Czar's Hymn and the Internationale, present anthem.

FRESCOBALDI, (1583-1643), born a century before Sebastian Bach (lacking two years) not only was the greatest organist of the 17th Century, but one of the most amazing examples of musical genius far in advance of its time. In his toccatas and fantasias he not only showed himself a great master of the ancient art of counterpoint, but a great pioneer in the supposedly modern field of chromatic harmony. Bach in 1714 was filled with such admiration by the mastery of this organist of St. Peter's, Rome, that he laboriously copied 104 pages of the "Fiori musicali," published in 1635—a full half century before Sebastian's birth. Girolamo Frescobaldi has been called the "Italian Bach." In view of this reversal of chronology, Bach should be the "German Frescobaldi."

WHEN JOHNNY COMES MARCHING HOME. Published in 1863 with "Louis Lambert" named as composer, this was really the work of Patrick Saarsfield Gilmore, the Union Army bandmaster who was to become famous for Peace Jubilees with orchestras of 1,000 and 2,000 players, and choruses of 10,000 and 20,000 heard in Boston in 1869 and 1872. Born in Ireland, he came to Canada with a military band, settled in Salem, Mass.

ROSES FROM THE SOUTH WALTZES. From his not very successful operetta of 1880, "The Queen's Lace Handkerchief," with a Spanish background, Johann Strauss, Jr. salvaged these lovely melodies.

PIANO CONCERTO IN A-MINOR—SCHUMANN. Originally the composer thought only of writing a piano solo for his virtuoso bride of a year, the former Clara Wieck. A Fantasie in A minor was the result. Clara played it in that form at a rehearsal only. Four years later, Robert had orchestrated the Fantasie, added two movements, and the present concerto was brought into being, with the former piano piece as the first movement. Clara made it famous.

BALDWIN PIANO

SERGE
KOUSSEVITZKY

says:

"The Baldwin Piano or the Orchestra, as well as for my own use, is perfection—a truly orchestral tone, round, full and of magnificent resonance and color. I consider it a great work of musical art."

ARTHUR FIEDLER
says:

"With its beautiful resonance and rich tone the Baldwin lends itself gallantly to solo, orchestral and choral performances."

The Boston "Pops" Orchestra

Today's Great Piano

One by one the great piano masters of the present generation choose the Baldwin. This choice is made by ear and by touch rather than by tradition. This growing preference for the Baldwin is in part because its makers do not rest upon old laurels but continue, year after year, their never-ending search for perfection.

NATIVE VINTAGE WINES

We are in the business of buying and selling — among other things — American wines. In building up our list we have applied the same principles that went into the buying of our imported wines. We have studied the sources of supply on the ground, we have taken our time, we have tasted, compared, eliminated, selected. Rightly or wrongly we believe our offerings to be unsurpassed both from the point of view of quality and satisfaction. We recommend the Inglenook, Wente Bros. and Widmer's wines listed in the Pops Menu under "Selected Vintage Wines."

S. S. P. GOLD COAST WINES

S.S.P. Gold Coast Wines are American wines of established reputation, carefully selected and bottled under our own House label. On the Pops menu.

★ GREAT WESTERN CHAMPAGNE

★ Today Great Western New York State Champagne is unquestionably the best known Champagne in America. It is a true Champagne made by the French method of slow fermentation in the bottle. From the 83-year-old cellars of the Pleasant Valley Wine Co. On the Pops menu.

★ GOLD COAST VERMOUTH

★ We offer our Gold Coast American Vermouth, which we believe may be used satisfactorily in place of imported. Dry or Sweet.

★ OVERLAND CIGARS

★ No other cigar we have offered in our existence of 112 years has so readily met the approval of those who want a mild cigar of quality for everyday use. Finest imported Cuban tobacco filler in a delicate Sumatra wrapper gives a delicious combination of flavor.

BLENDED SCOTCH WHISKY

Glen Garry is an outstanding blend of aged Scotch Whiskies, selected and blended by experts whose skill is proven by the soft, mellow purity of flavor of this choice Scotch. The youngest whisky in the bottle has been matured in wood for 8 years before being bottled. 86.8 proof. Imported by S. S. Pierce Co. for 50 years.

Gold Seal produces two champagnes—Special Dry and Brut. They are produced by the traditional French method of natural fermentation in the bottle. Special Dry is sparkling with a semi-sweet bouquet to please the popular taste. Brut is a distinctly dry champagne with fine bouquet that appeals to the connoisseur. It has all the natural flavor of the choicest grapes.

Gold Seal Sparkling Burgundy is a glorious blend of choice red wines. Rich, red and robust, its dainty, sparkling, moderately sweet bouquet makes it a very popular dinner wine.

Gold Seal's sparkling and still wines are produced in the "Champagne District of America."

OVERTURE TO "EGMONT."

Beethoven wrote this work expressly to be played in the theatre before performances of Goethe's tragedy, "Egmont." He composed the overture while deeply stirred over reading the drama. Goethe depicted the struggle of the Flemish nobleman, the count of Egmont, to free the Netherlands from the oppression of Spain. Egmont was captured by treachery and executed, but his inspiring example lived on.

It is reported that Beethoven felt himself akin to the Count of Egmont in his own struggles against personal and artistic grievances, real or fancied.

AUDREY KUPPERSTEIN. Has won the honor conferred annually on the Smith College senior showing the greatest ability on any instrument—selection as soloist in a concerto with the college orchestra at the final Commencement concert. Awarded Alumnae Fellowship of $600 for further study in music next year anywhere she chooses. Has composed a Sonata for 'Cello and Piano, recently performed. Pupil of Augustus Lawson of Hartford, and Biancha del Vecchio at Smith.

LA VIDA BREVE ("Life is Short") — MANUEL DE FALLA. Strange results attended the writing of this two-act opera. Composed in response to the offer of a prize by Spain's Royal Academy of Fine Arts for the best lyric drama submitted by a Spanish composer, it won, but received no performance in connection with the award. Neither was it brought out by the enterprise of any Spanish stage producer. The operatic award came in 1905, as did a prize in a national contest for pianists. Falla found himself advanced by this double victory to a degree of public esteem which brought him success as a teacher in Madrid. So well had he fared financially in two years, that he decided he could afford a seven-day visit to Paris. He stayed seven years.

Friendship, appreciation, and mental stimulation were afforded him in abundance by Debussy, Dukas and Ravel. It was through Dukas he met Spain's notable pioneer nationalist composer of the twentieth century — Isaac Albéniz, who had settled in Paris. To the latter, Falla has written, he "owed valuable advice and warm stimulus for my work." Falla was aided in improving his orchestral technique by informal studies with Debussy and Dukas. But he composed Spanish music, and not an imitation of French. To France he owed the first performances of "La Vida Breve," in Nice in 1913, and Paris in 1914. Not until after his return to his native country at the outbreak of the First World War, was his first "national opera" performed in Spain—in Madrid, in 1914.

INVITATION TO THE DANCE. Orchestrated by Berlioz from a piano solo of Weber. The plot, as told by Weber himself: First appearance of the dancers. The lady's evasive reply. His pressing invitation. Her consent. He begins conversation. Her reply. He speaks with greater warmth. The sympathetic agreement. He addresses her with regard to the dance. Her answer. They take their places. Waiting for the commencement of the dance. The conclusion of the dance, his thanks, her reply, and their retirement.

ANIMALS' CARNIVAL. Among the abundant witty touches of Saint-Saëns herein: The representation of wild horses mimics pianists who ally themselves with speed and noise, rather than art. The tortoises crawl to the greatly retarded playing of a tune usually heard at a very rapid pace in the overture to Offenbach's "Orpheus in Hades," familiar to Pops-goers. To suggest elephants, the composer makes a ponderous use of the Dance of the Sylphs from Berlioz' "Damnation of Faust."

THE GOLDEN AGE — SHOSTAKOVITCH. First of three ballets in three acts. This one satirizes life in a capitalist city. A Fascist is one of the characters. This was written while Shostakovitch also was working on his Third Symphony. The composer especially likes composing several works at once. Produced first in Leningrad in 1930.

vited late in 1873 by Pasdeloup to write a concert overture for one of his Sunday programmes, was able to compose it with sentiments stirred from the depths of his being by memories of the Franco-Prussian War, and the effects of it still seen and felt two years after the peace treaty.

In this noble music he creates impressions of not only patriotic, but universal, appeal—those of an invaded but unconquered country rising again to greater heights.

PROCESSION OF BACCHUS FROM "SYLVIA."

In the world of the classical ballet, Leo Delibes is held to be the first composer of ballet music which is perfect for the needs of ballet, and at the same time is fully equal to holding interest in concert performance.

The scene for the present episode from "Sylvia" is a Temple of Diana, near the seashore. Peasants hold a festival. Soldiers chase them with switches to make room for a procession of celebrants of a feast of Bacchus, garbed as warriors, and brandishing javelins as they dance.

RIDE OF THE VALKYRIES.

Act Three of "Die Walküre" (The Valkyrie) opens with this music.

It betokens the assembling, mounted on winged horses, of Brünnhilde and her eight sister-Valkyries—the War God Wotan's warrior daughters, whose mission is to gather up heroes slain in battle, and ride up through the skies with them to Valhalla, heaven of heroes in the old Teutonic myths.

Motifs in the music actually symbolize the neighing and pawing of the winged steeds, amid the re-echoed cries of the Valkyries to each other.

ENTRANCE OF THE GUESTS. They have been called together in the singers' hall of Wartburg castle, to hear Tannhäuser and Wolfram contest in the knightly accomplishment of song improvisation.

BY THE BEAUTIFUL BLUE DANUBE. Plan of the composition: Introduction—Succession of five admirably compatible waltzes—Coda, which reviews and intermingles material from the five. With little change, this is the underlying form of the younger Strauss's more than 400 waltzes—or, shall we say, waltz suites?

Brahms praised the clarity of the Waltz King's orchestration. Just before Brahms surrendered to the weakness of his last illness, he summoned up strength to attend the opening performance of Strauss's comic opera, "Die Göttin der Vernunft."

MARCH SLAVE (Slavic—not Slave—March). Written by Tchaikovsky in 1876. Commissioned for, but played more than year after, a concert for the benefit of Serbs wounded in the war between Serbia and Turkey. The sombre theme which gives the special mood and Oriental orchestral color to the march was based by the composer on the Serb folk-song, "Come, My Dearest, Why So Sad This Morning?" The second principal theme is, of course, Alexis Lvov's hymn, "God Preserve the Czar," composed at the command of Nicholas I. in 1833, and ordered by him to be adopted by the Russian Army.

SECOND HUNGARIAN RHAPSODY. Although Liszt is often thought of as the creator of this form, it was several works of Schubert which gave him the idea, and should have credit for priority. These were the Hungarian March, and the Divertissement à la Hongroise. The latter, for piano, four hands (Opus 54), Liszt transcribed for piano, two hands.

OLD DUTCH PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING. Although earning his living at various legal posts in the Netherlands, Adrianus Valerius was proficient at composing music and words for songs. The "Prayer" originally appeared in 1621 in a collection he published of Netherlands national songs, together with some from his own hand, and from England, France, Germany, and Italy. The inspiration of the Prayer was a Dutch victory in the struggle of the Netherlands against subjugation by Spanish and Austrian overlords. Valerius, whose birth-date is unknown, died in 1625.

1500 HOMES A NIGHT!

Yes — that's the number of burglarized homes in America every night. Pity the hard-working burglar! But he's doing nicely — thanks to the increased value through scarcity of many personal and household items which make your home so inviting to him and which materially increase your chance of loss.

You can protect yourself on this score and be free from worry through American Mutual's $1000 Blanket Theft policy. This policy covers all your personal and household property both at and away from your residence and includes $100 on cash and $500 on securities and War Stamps.

In New England the annual cost is $15 in a private dwelling — $18.50 in an apartment.

Dividends to policyholders have never been less than 20% of the premiums paid

TOMORROW ALWAYS COMES

A world at war . . . What will these grim years do to your sensitive young child?

What hopes and dreams now stir in your child's heart! But you think of the war. . . . How will he emerge from a day of strict mass controls, to face the future as an individual?

In thousands of homes, thoughtful parents are teaching their children to know and love good music. Here is one golden path, at least, to the realm of the free spirit!

The hands of Steinway craftsmen are now shaping matériel for our armed forces. But you may still buy a new Steinway . . . in point of long life, prestige, and beauty of line and tone, the greatest piano value ever offered.

PRESENTS

NATIVE VINTAGE WINES

We are in the business of buying and selling — among other things — American wines. In building up our list we have applied the same principles that went into the buying of our imported wines. We have studied the sources of supply on the ground, we have taken our time, we have tasted, compared, eliminated, selected. Rightly or wrongly we believe our offerings to be unsurpassed both from the point of view of quality and satisfaction. We recommend the Inglenook, Wente Bros. and Widmer's wines listed in the Pops Menu under "Selected Vintage Wines."

S. S. P. GOLD COAST WINES

S.S.P. Gold Coast Wines are American wines of established reputation, carefully selected and bottled under our own House label. On the Pops menu.

★ GREAT WESTERN CHAMPAGNE

★ GOLD COAST VERMOUTH

★ We offer our Gold Coast American Vermouth, which we believe may be used satisfactorily in place of imported. Dry or Sweet.

★ OVERLAND CIGARS

★ No other cigar we have offered in our existence of 112 years has so readily met the approval of those who want a mild cigar of quality for everyday use. Finest imported Cuban tobacco filler in a delicate Sumatra wrapper gives a delicious combination of flavor.

BLENDED SCOTCH WHISKY

Glen Garry is an outstanding blend of aged Scotch Whiskies, selected and blended by experts whose skill is proven by the soft, mellow purity of flavor of this choice Scotch. The youngest whisky in the bottle has been matured in wood for 8 years before being bottled. 86.8 proof. Imported by S. S. Pierce Co. for 50 years.

Advertising is thus even more important now than in normal times. You will not be unpatriotic, because if we

BOSTON UNIVERSITY HYMN

DANIEL L. MARSH

O glorious thy name and fame,
Resplendent from thy youth!
O radiant the holy flame
That lights thy lamp of Truth!
O Boston University,
O Alma Mater dear,
We'll cherish, love and honor thee,
And thy great name revere.

O beautiful thy colors' gleam,
The scarlet and the white,
When Love and Life mean all they seem,
Courageous for the Right!
O Boston University,
O Alma Mater brave,
We'll boldly stand for purity
Where'er thy banners wave.

O wonderful thy Charter's aim —
High Learning's perfect flower
And Virtue's fruit. Let these proclaim
Thy nurture and thy power.
O Boston University,
O Alma Mater true,
We'll strive to make the Future free,
And thus thy goal pursue.

O Vision Splendid! Thine the art
To make all visions real:
The call to serve with all the heart
Is blazoned on thy seal.
O Boston University,
O Alma Mater fine,
We'll live to give reality
To thine ideals divine.

CLARISSIMA

BRENTON C. PATTERSON

Heart of old Trimountain town,
Thru the ages extend thy renown!
Past and present join in song,
Thy praises to prolong,
Afar shines thy clear beacon light
Ever guiding to truth and to right,
Dear Boston University,
Be thy fair dominion long.

2

Laud we thy Puritan birth;
And do tribute to thy sterling worth.
True to thee thy every son,
By bonds of love made one!
Our laurels we bring to thy shrine,
All our life's full attainment is thine.
Old Boston, we will turn to thee,
Wherever our course may run.

Chorus

Join we all in loving praise,
Sing her triumph clear;
Honor the name of enduring fame
With rev'rent lays.
Sound afar her glory true,
Hail with cheer on cheer!
Clarissima mater alma! Old B. U.

A light that shines o'er hill and dale,
Hail, Alma Mater, hail, all hail!

NEW YORK STATE

Champagnes and Sparkling Burgundy

Gold Seal produces two champagnes—Special Dry and Brut. They are produced by the traditional French method of natural fermentation in the bottle. Special Dry is sparkling with a semi-sweet bouquet to please the popular taste. Brut is a distinctly dry champagne with fine bouquet that appeals to the connoisseur. It has all the natural flavor of the choicest grapes.

Gold Seal Sparkling Burgundy is a glorious blend of choice red wines. Rich, red and robust, its dainty, sparkling, moderately sweet bouquet makes it a very popular dinner wine.

Gold Seal's sparkling and still wines are produced in the "Champagne District of America."

SERGE
KOUSSEVITZKY
says:

"The Baldwin Piano for the Orchestra, as well as for my own use, is perfection—a truly orchestral tone, round, full and of magnificent resonance and color. I consider it a great work of musical art."

ARTHUR FIEDLER
says:

"With its beautiful resonance and rich tone the Baldwin lends itself gallantly to solo, orchestral and choral performances."

The Boston "Pops" Orchestra

Today's Great Piano

One by one the great piano masters of the present generation choose the Baldwin. This choice is made by ear and by touch rather than by tradition. This growing preference for the Baldwin is in part because its makers do not rest upon old laurels but continue, year after year, their never-ending search for perfection.

He takes advantage of busier-than-ever families and visits when he knows you're not at home. P.M. he may jimmy a window or A.M. roll up in a truck and bear off household property (more valuable to him and to you because of its present scarcity) under the innocent guise of cleaner or furniture mover.

You can guard yourself from this, however, and be free from worry through American Mutual's $1,000 Blanket Theft policy — it covers all your personal and household property both at and away from your residence, includes $100 on cash, $500 on securities and War Stamps. ## TOMORROW ALWAYS COMES

A world at war . . . What will these grim years do to your sensitive young child?

What hopes and dreams now stir in your child's heart! But you think of the war. . . . How will he emerge from a day of strict mass controls, to face the future as an individual?

In thousands of homes, thoughtful parents are teaching their children to know and love good music. Here is one golden path, at least, to the realm of the free spirit!

The hands of Steinway craftsmen are now shaping matériel for our armed forces. But you may still buy a new Steinway . . . in point of long life, prestige, and beauty of line and tone, the greatest piano value ever offered.

NATIVE VINTAGE WINES

We are in the business of buying and selling — among other things — American wines. In building up our list we have applied the same principles that went into the buying of our imported wines. We have studied the sources of supply on the ground, we have taken our time, we have tasted, compared, eliminated, selected. Rightly or wrongly we believe our offerings to be unsurpassed both from the point of view of quality and satisfaction. We recommend the Inglenook, Wente Bros. and Widmer's wines listed in the Pops Menu under "Selected Vintage Wines."

S. S. P. GOLD COAST WINES

S.S.P. Gold Coast Wines are American wines of established reputation, carefully selected and bottled under our own House label. On the Pops menu.

★ GREAT WESTERN CHAMPAGNE

★ Today Great Western New York State Champagne is unquestionably the best known Champagne in America. It is a true Champagne made by the French method of slow fermentation in the bottle. From the 83-year-old cellars of the Pleasant Valley Wine Co. On the Pops menu.

★ GOLD COAST VERMOUTH

★ We offer our Gold Coast American Vermouth, which we believe may be used satisfactorily in place of imported. Dry or Sweet.

★ OVERLAND CIGARS

★ No other cigar we have offered in our existence of 112 years has so readily met the approval of those who want a mild cigar of quality for everyday use. Finest imported Cuban tobacco filler in a delicate Sumatra wrapper gives a delicious combination of flavor.

BLENDED SCOTCH WHISKY

Glen Garry is an outstanding blend of aged Scotch Whiskies, selected and blended by experts whose skill is proven by the soft, mellow purity of flavor of this choice Scotch. The youngest whisky in the bottle has been matured in wood for 8 years before being bottled. 86.8 proof. Imported by S. S. Pierce Co. for 50 years.

WORDS OF SONGS

SONG FEST, Medley

PACK UP YOUR TROUBLES

Pack up your troubles in your old kit-bag,
While you've a lucifer to light your fag,
Smile, boys, that's the style.
What's the use of worrying?
It never was worth while.
So pack up your troubles in your old kit-bag.

SMILES

There are smiles that make us happy,
There are smiles that make us blue;
There are smiles that steal away the tear-drops
As the sunbeams steal away the dew.
There are smiles that have a tender meaning
That the eyes of love alone may see,
But the smiles that fill my life with sunshine
Are the smiles that you give to me.

TILL WE MEET AGAIN

Smile the while you kiss me sad adieu,
When the clouds roll by, I'll come to you.
Then the skies will seem more blue
Down in lovers' lane, my dearie.
Wedding bells will ring so merrily,
Ev'ry tear will be a memory;
So wait and pray each night for me,
Till we meet again.

IN THE SHADE OF THE OLD APPLE TREE

In the shade of the old apple tree,
Where the love in your eyes I could see,
When the voice that I heard, like the song of the bird,
Seem'd to whisper sweet music to me;
I could hear the dull buzz of the bee,
In the blossoms as you said to me,
"With a heart that is true,
I'll be waiting for you,
In the shade of the old apple tree."

MY WILD IRISH ROSE

My wild Irish rose, the sweetest flow'r that grows,
You may search ev'rywhere, but none can compare
With my wild Irish rose.
My wild Irish rose, the dearest flow'r that
grows,
And some day for my sake, she may let me take
The bloom from my wild Irish rose.

TAKE ME OUT TO THE BALL GAME

Take me out to the ball game, take me out with the crowd,
Buy me some peanuts and cracker-jack,
I don't care if I never get back!
Let me root root root for the home-team,
If they don't win it's a shame—
For it's one, two, three strikes,
You're out at the old ball game.

SWEET ADELIN

Sweet Adeline, my Adeline,
At night, dear heart, for you I pine;
In all my dreams your fair face beams;
You're the flower of my heart, sweet Adeline.

PUT ON YOUR OLD GREY BONNET

Put on your old grey bonnet,
With the blue ribbon on it,
While I hitch old Dobbin to the shay,
And through the fields of clover
We will drive to Dover
On our golden wedding day.

THERE IS A TAVERN IN THE TOWN

There is a tavern in the town, in the town
And there my true love sits him down, sits
him down
And takes his ease 'mid laughter free
And never, never thinks of me.
Fare thee well, for I must leave thee,
Do not let this parting grieve thee,
And remember that the best of friends must part, must part.
Adieu, adieu, kind friends, adieu, adieu, adieu
I can no longer stay with you, stay with you;
I'll hang my harp on a weeping willow tree,
And may the world go well with thee.

MAINE STEIN SONG

Fill the steins to dear old Maine,
Shout till the rafters ring!
Stand and drink a toast once again!
Let every loyal Maine man sing.
Then—drink to all the happy hours,
Drink to the careless days,
Drink to Maine, our Alma Mater,
The college of our hearts always.
To the trees, to the sky!
To the spring in its glorious happiness,
To the youth, to the fire,
To the life that is moving and calling us!
To the Gods, to the Fates,
To the rulers of men and their destinies;
To the lips, to the eyes,
To the girls who will love us some day!
Oh, fill the steins to dear old Maine,
Shout till the rafters ring!
Stand and drink a toast once again!
Let every loyal Maine man sing.
Then—drink to all the happy hours,
Drink to the careless days,
Drink to Maine, our Alma Mater,
The college of our hearts always.

LET ME CALL YOU SWEETHEART

Let me call you "Sweetheart"; I'm in love
with you;
Let me hear you whisper that you love me, too.
Keep the lovelight glowing in your eyes so true,
Let me call you "Sweetheart"; I'm in love
with you.

OVER THERE American War Song Selections

OVER THERE (Chorus)

Over there, over there,
Send the word, send the word, over there,
That the Yanks are coming, the Yanks are coming,
The drums rum-tumling ev'rywhere.
So prepare, say a pray'r.
Send the word, send the word to beware.
We'll be over, we're coming over,
And we won't come back till it's over, over
there.

GOOD-BYE BROADWAY, HELLO FRANCE

Good-bye Broadway, Hello France,
We're ten million strong.
Good-bye sweethearts, wives and mothers,
It won't take us long.
Don't you worry while we're there,
It's for you we're fighting too;
So Good-bye Broadway, Hello France.
We're going to square our debt to you.

THE ROSE OF NO-MAN'S LAND

There's a rose that grows on "No-Man's Land"
And it's wonderful to see,
Tho' it's sprayed with tears, it will live for years,
In my garden of memory.
It's the one red rose the soldier knows,
It's the work of the master's hand;
'Mid the war's great curse stand the Red Cross Nurse,
She's the rose of "No-Man's Land."

K-K-K-KATY

K-K-K-Katy, beautiful Katy,
You're the only g-g-g-girl that I adore.
When the m-u-m-moon shines over the cow-shed,
I'll be waiting at the k-k-k-kitchen door.

KEEP YOUR HEAD DOWN, FRITZIE BOY

Keep your head down, Fritzie Boy,
Keep your head down, Fritzie Boy,
Last night in the pale moon-light,
I saw you, I saw you.
You were fixing your barb'd wire
When we opened "rapid fire."
If you want to see your "Vater in the Vater-land,"

WHERE DO WE GO FROM HERE, BOYS?

Where do we go from here, boys, where do we go from here?
Anywhere from Harlem to a Jersey City pier.
When Pat would spy a pretty girl, he'd whisper in her ear,
"Oh joy! Oh boy! where do we go from here!"

OVER THERE (Complete)

Johnnie get your gun, get your gun, get your gun,
Take it on the run, on the run, on the run;
Hear them calling you and me;
Ev'ry son of liberty.
Hurry right away, no delay, go today,
Make your daddy glad, to have had such a lad,
Tell your sweetheart not to pine,
To be proud her boy's in line.

Over there, over there,
Send the word, send the word, over there,
That the Yanks are coming, the Yanks are coming,
The drums rum-tumming ev'rywhere.
So prepare, say a pray'r.
Send the word, send the word to beware.
We'll be over, we're coming over,
And we won't come back till it's over, over
there.

SONGS OF THE OLD DAYS

TA-RA-RA BOOM-DE-AY

A bright and stylish girl you see,
Belle of good society;
Not too strict, but rather free,
Yet as right as right can be.
Never forward, never bold,
Not too shy, and not too cold;
But the very thing, I'm told,
Tbat in your arms you'd like to fold.
Ta-ra-ra boom-de-ay, ta-ra-ra boom-de-ay,
Ta-ra-ra boom-de-ay, ta-ra-ra boom-de-ay,
Ta-ra-ra boom-de-ay, ta-ra-ra boom-de-ay,
Ta-ra-ra boom-de-ay, ta-ra-ra boom-de-ay.

THE BOWERY

Oh, the night that I struck New York,
I went out for a quiet walk;
Folks that are on to the city say,
Better by far had I taken Broadway.
I was out to enjoy the sights,
There was the Bowery ablaze with lights;
I had one of the devil's own nights,
And I'll never go there any more.
The Bow'ry, the Bow'ry,
They say such things, and they do strange
things on the Bow'ry, the Bow'ry,
I'll never go there any more.

THE SIDEWALKS OF NEW YORK

East side, West side, all around the town,
The tots sang "Ring-a-Rosie,
London Bridge is falling down";
Boys and girls together, me and Mamie
O'Rourke,
Tripped the light fantastic
On the sidewalks of New York.

SWEET ROSIE O'GRADY

Sweet Rosie O'Grady, my dear little Rose,
You're my steady lady, 'most everyone knows;
And when we are married, how happy we'll be,
For I love sweet Rosie O'Grady, and Rosie
O'Grady loves me.

DAISY (On a bicycle built for two)

Daisy, Daisy, give me your answer true,
I'm half crazy all for the love of you.
It won't be a stylish marriage—
I can't afford a carriage;
But you'll look sweet upon the seat
Of a bicycle built for two.

WHILE THE BAND PLAYED ON

Casey would waltz with a strawberry blonde,
While the band played on.
He waltzed 'round the floor with the girl he adored,
While the band played on.
His head, it was loaded, it nearly exploded;
The poor girl, she shook with alarm.
He ne'er left the girl with the strawberry curl.

AFTER THE BALL

After the ball was over,
After the break of morn,
After the dancers' leaving,
After the stars are gone,
Many a heart is aching,
If you could read them all;
Many the hopes that have vanished
After the ball.

A HOT TIME IN THE OLD TOWN

When you hear dem bells go ding, lling, lling,
All join 'round and sweetly you must sing;
And when the verse am through, in the chorus
all join in —
There'll be a hot time in the old town tonight!

PLAN FOR TOMORROW . . . today

Today's task for American industry is all-out war production. The splendid record it is making will hasten the day when mills and factories will again be manufacturing goods for peacetime consumption.

When this time comes, those who today are maintaining contact with their old customers will find it easiest to make the change. There is no better way of keeping this contact than with carefully planned and prepared mail advertising. It is direct and personal. Nothing else can perform the task so efficiently.

The Geo. H. Ellis Co. is equipped to plan and produce effective customer contacts in the form of folders, booklets, manuals, and house magazines. These avenues of customer approach have been our forte through seventy years' experience, and we stand ready to collaborate with American business in the reconstruction period ahead.

Champagnes and Sparkling Burgundy

Gold Seal produces two champagnes—Special Dry and Brut. They are produced by the traditional French method of natural fermentation in the bottle. Special Dry is sparkling with a semi-sweet bouquet to please the popular taste. Brut is a distinctly dry champagne with fine bouquet that appeals to the connoisseur. It has all the natural flavor of the choicest grapes.

Gold Seal Sparkling Burgundy is a glorious blend of choice red wines. Rich, red and robust, its dainty, sparkling, moderately sweet bouquet makes it a very popular dinner wine.

Gold Seal's sparkling and still wines are produced in the "Champagne District of America."

Today's Great Piano

One by one the great piano masters of the present generation choose the Baldwin. This choice is made by ear and by touch rather than by tradition. This growing preference for the Baldwin is in part because its makers do not rest upon old laurels but continue, year after year, their never-ending search for perfection.

A fire is sweeping the earth, and free people are fighting it. You think of your sensitive children — born into this time of conflict.

What will war's inevitable restrictions do to their personalities?

Thousands of Steinway owners know that children can face the future with unconquerable spirit . . . if you prepare the heart and mind now.

For the Steinway helps build the individual. It instructs, enlightens, entertains. It brings out the best in the child. . . And for beauty of tone, and for stamina, the Steinway is unsurpassed in the world of music.

NATIVE VINTAGE WINES

We are in the business of buying and selling — among other things — American wines. In building up our list we have applied the same principles that went into the buying of our imported wines. We have studied the sources of supply on the ground, we have taken our time, we have tasted, compared, eliminated, selected. Rightly or wrongly we believe our offerings to be unsurpassed both from the point of view of quality and satisfaction. We recommend the Inglenook, Wente Bros. and Widmer's wines listed in the Pops Menu under "Selected Vintage Wines."

S. S. P. GOLD COAST WINES

S.S.P. Gold Coast Wines are American wines of established reputation, carefully selected and bottled under our own House label. On the Pops menu.

★ GREAT WESTERN CHAMPAGNE

★ Today Great Western New York State Champagne is unquestionably the best known Champagne in America. It is a true Champagne made by the French method of slow fermentation in the bottle. From the 83-year-old cellars of the Pleasant Valley Wine Co. On the Pops menu.

★ GOLD COAST VERMOUTH

★ We offer our Gold Coast American Vermouth, which we believe may be used satisfactorily in place of imported. Dry or Sweet.

Today's task for American industry is all-out war production. The splendid record it is making will hasten mail advertising. It is direct and personal. Nothing else can perform the task so efficiently.

The Geo. H. Ellis Co. is equipped to plan and produce effective customer contacts in the form of folders, booklets, manuals, and house magazines. These avenues of customer approach have been our forte through seventy years' experience, and we stand ready to collaborate with American business in the reconstruction period ahead.

POP-OVERS

WHEN JOHNNY COMES MARCHING HOME. Published in 1863 with "Louis Lambert" named as composer, this was really the work of Patrick Saarsfield Gilmore, the Union Army bandmaster who was to become famous for Peace Jubilees with orchestras of 1,000 and 2,000 players, and choruses of 10,000 and 20,000 heard in Boston in 1869 and 1872. Born in Ireland, he came to Canada with a military band, settled in Salem, Mass.

On the outbreak of the Civil War, in 1861, he accompanied the 24th Massachusetts Volunteers to the front, and was under Gen. Burnside's command in the Carolinas. Returning to Boston when the War Department, for reasons of economy, dissolved the Regimental Band, Gilmore was commissioned by Governor John A. Andrew to reorganize the State Military Band. With this group he reported for duty at New Orleans in 1863. Gen. Banks appointed him Bandmaster General of the Regimental Bands in the Department of Louisiana.

SYMPHONY NO. 7, IN A MAJOR — BEETHOVEN. The Finale, in 2-4 time, might well have been designated by the composer as "in the style of the Irish reel." Its theme is, with slight alteration, "Kitty Coleranie." Beethoven already had made use of this tune, in fashioning an accompaniment to "Nora Creina." He had been engaged by the noted Scottish collector of folk tunes, George Thomson, to write piano and violin accompaniments for a set of Irish songs. Beethoven was impressed by the individuality of Irish melody and rhythm.

THE SHAMROCK — ARRANGED BY W. H. MYDDLETON. In the version used here, the Irish melodies heard are: The Minstrel Boy, Off in the Stilly Night, Norah Creina, Paddy Whack, St. Patrick's Day, The Valley Lay Smiling Before Me, Cruiskeen Lawn, The Shamrock, The Young May Moon, Thady You Gander, The Irish Washerwoman, Wearing of the Green, The Harp That Once Through Tara's Halls.

POMP AND CIRCUMSTANCE designates a set of six marches composed by Elgar. He published only five, however. The first, in the key of D, is the most familiar, from both instrumental and choral performances (sung to Arthur C. Benson's poem, "Land of Hope and Glory").

"BATAAN," TONE POEM — HARL McDONALD. The genesis of the work is narrated thus by the composer:

"During the weeks of late March and early April, 1942, the attention of all America was focused on Bataan Peninsula.

"It is natural for a composer to translate his most compelling emotional experiences into music, and as a result, during that three-week period, working late at night, or whenever I could find an hour of freedom from other duties, I composed the tone-poem.

"The composition bears a dedication to General MacArthur and the American and Philippine troops whose monumental courage and heroism will remain a bright spot in our history."

MORTON GOULD. (b. Long Island, N.Y., 1913). Composer at four, student of composition and piano recitalist in his teens, graduate of New York University at fifteen, he has become a sort of American Prokofiev. In other words, in his music are found inventiveness, admirable craftsmanship in orchestration, and humor — as for example in his adaptation of Europe's ancient dance, the pavane, to his American Symphonette, and his elaboration on Patrick Gilmore's song of the Civil War, "When Johnny Comes Marching Home."

Champagnes and Sparkling Burgundy

Gold Seal produces two champagnes—Special Dry and Brut. They are produced by the traditional French method of natural fermentation in the bottle. Special Dry is sparkling with a semi-sweet bouquet to please the popular taste. Brut is a distinctly dry champagne with fine bouquet that appeals to the connoisseur. It has all the natural flavor of the choicest grapes.

Gold Seal Sparkling Burgundy is a glorious blend of choice red wines. Rich, red and robust, its dainty, sparkling, moderately sweet bouquet makes it a very popular dinner wine.

Gold Seal's sparkling and still wines are produced in the "Champagne District of America."

Today's Great Piano

One by one the great piano masters of the present generation choose the Baldwin. This choice is made by ear and by touch rather than by tradition. This growing preference for the Baldwin is in part because its makers do not rest upon old laurels but continue, year after year, their never-ending search for perfection.

*The Boston "Pops" Orchestra
uses the Baldwin piano exclusively*

THE FLOWERING BRANCH

Lovely as a young birch . . . your child in the morning of life.
Suddenly, into the budding grove, come the chill winds of war.

STEINWAY THE INSTRUMENT OF THE IMMORTALS

M. STEINERT &amp; SONS

JEROME F. MURPHY, President

162 BOYLSTON STREET BOSTON

A fire is sweeping the earth, and free people are fighting it. You think of your sensitive children — born into this time of conflict.

What will war's inevitable restrictions do to their personalities?

Thousands of Steinway owners know that children can face the future with unconquerable spirit . . . if you prepare the heart and mind now.

For the Steinway helps build the individual. It instructs, enlightens, entertains. It brings out the best in the child. . . . And for beauty of tone, and for stamina, the Steinway is unsurpassed in the world of music.

PRESENTS

NATIVE VINTAGE WINES

We are in the business of buying and selling — among other things — American wines. In building up our list we have applied the same principles that went into the buying of our imported wines. We have studied the sources of supply on the ground, we have taken our time, we have tasted, compared, eliminated, selected. Rightly or wrongly we believe our offerings to be unsurpassed both from the point of view of quality and satisfaction. We recommend the Inglenook, Wente Bros. and Widmer's wines listed in the Pops Menu under "Selected Vintage Wines."

S. S. P. GOLD COAST WINES

S.S.P. Gold Coast Wines are American wines of established reputation, carefully selected and bottled under our own House label. On the Pops menu.

★ GREAT WESTERN CHAMPAGNE

★ GOLD COAST VERMOUTH

★ We offer our Gold Coast American Vermouth, which we believe may be used satisfactorily in place of imported. Dry or Sweet.

★ OVERLAND CIGARS

★ No other cigar we have offered in our existence of 112 years has so readily met the approval of those who want a mild cigar of quality for everyday use. Finest imported Cuban tobacco filler in a delicate Sumatra wrapper gives a delicious combination of flavor.

BLENDED SCOTCH WHISKY

Glen Garry is an outstanding blend of aged Scotch Whiskies, selected and blended by experts whose skill is proven by the soft, mellow purity of flavor of this choice Scotch. The youngest whisky in the bottle has been matured in wood for 8 years before being bottled. 86.8 proof. Imported by S. S. Pierce Co. for 50 years.

PLAN FOR TOMORROW . . . today

Today's task for American industry is all-out war production. The splendid record it is making will hasten the day when mills and factories will again be manufacturing goods for peacetime consumption.

When this time comes, those who today are maintaining contact with their old customers will find it easiest to make the change. There is no better way of keeping this contact than with carefully planned and prepared mail advertising. It is direct and personal. Nothing else can perform the task so efficiently.

The Geo. H. Ellis Co. is equipped to plan and produce effective customer contacts in the form of folders, booklets, manuals, and house magazines. These avenues of customer approach have been our forte through seventy years' experience, and we stand ready to collaborate with American business in the reconstruction period ahead.

POP-OVERS

JOHN PHILIP SOUSA (b. Washington, D. C., 1854, d. Reading, Pa., 1932). As rightfully "The March King" as Johann Strauss, Jr., was "The Waltz King," he became, and remains, as highly esteemed in Europe for his marches as Strauss for his waltzes. A further bond of similarity is that Sousa, like the other king, held sway not only by virtue of his melodic inventiveness and his mastery of rhythm, but in addition by his command of the art of instrumentation. And just because Sousa was a band leader, let it not be forgotten that he, like Strauss, was an excellent violinist. To this should be added the fact that Sousa was a thoroughly trained orchestra musician and conductor before he headed a band.

BARTERED BRIDE—BEDRICH SMETANA.

The story revolves around the outwitting of a wily marriage broker (a customary adjunct to Czech peasant marriages) by Hans, the hero. Mary loves Hans. But her parents are rich, his are unknown, and he is a servant in her family. It is the plan of the marriage broker for Mary to be wedded to the dim-witted Wenzel, stepson of the wealthy peasant, Micha. Success with the match will bring a high fee to the broker. But he finds Mary and her mother immune to his arguments in favor of the virtuous character—and parental wealth—of Wenzel. He sets to work on the neediness of Hans, offering him money in return for a renunciation of Mary. An agreement is signed. Hans thereby puts himself in a very unfavorable light to Mary, the villagers—and the opera audience. But he has bartered with the elated marriage broker to adopt his own phraseology in the document, by which wording Hans agrees that "none other than Micha's son shall wed Mary." Then it turns out that Hans is the long-lost son of Micha. Since the rival Wenzel is only a stepson, Hans really has a signed contract with the broker to wed Mary himself, and all goes merrily thereafter. In fact, Wenzel obligingly falls in love with a dancer in a circus, and attempts to join the troupe by impersonating a trained bear.

HAROLD RUBENS. Born in Cardiff, Wales, 1922, made his debut in London at the age of eleven.

OVERTURE TO "MIGNON"—AMBROISE THOMAS.

A dancer in a group of gypsy entertainers wandering through Germany, Mignon remembers no associates but these, no family of her own. Actually, she is of noble birth, was kidnapped as a baby. Her tragic situation as a gypsy captive is reflected in the opening strains of the overture.

Next is heard a harp-like motif. This symbolizes the aged and temporarily deranged harper, Lotario, who befriends her.

In the lovely slow melody, Mignon speaks of the beautiful warm southern country where she vaguely remembers once living: "Knowest Thou That Land?"

Mignon's rival for the affections of the hero, Wilhelm Meister, is the actress Filina. She is represented in the overture by the song in which she describes herself in her role in "A Midsummer Night's Dream": "I am flaxen-haired Titania."

The plot of the opera ends with Wilhelm's discovery that he loves the long-worshipping Mignon; the mental recovery of Lotario, who is revealed as not a harper but a nobleman, and his discovery that Mignon is the daughter whose kidnapping had crazed him.

Champagnes and Sparkling Burgundy

THE CHOICE OF CONNOISSEURS
FOR 78 YEARS

Gold Seal produces two champagnes—Special Dry and Brut. They are produced by the traditional French method of natural fermentation in the bottle. Special Dry is sparkling with a semi-sweet bouquet to please the popular taste. Brut is a distinctly dry champagne with fine bouquet that appeals to the connoisseur. It has all the natural flavor of the choicest grapes.

Gold Seal Sparkling Burgundy is a glorious blend of choice red wines. Rich, red and robust, its dainty, sparkling, moderately sweet bouquet makes it a very popular dinner wine.

Gold Seal's sparkling and still wines are produced in the "Champagne District of America."

---

One by one the great piano masters of the present generation choose the Baldwin. This choice is made by ear and by touch rather than by tradition. This growing preference for the Baldwin is in part because its makers do not rest upon old laurels but continue, year after year, their never-ending search for perfection.

MAN AT WORK

Losses from burglary are increasing day after day because—due to war-time shortages your possessions have become very valuable to the thief. And with black markets flourishing, there is always a ready buyer for stolen goods.

But you can protect yourself on this score and be free from worry through American Mutual's $1000 Blanket Theft policy. This covers all your personal and household property both at and away from home and includes $100 on cash and $500 on securities and War Bonds and stamps.

In New England the annual cost is $15 in a private dwelling—$18.50 in an apartment.

Dividends to policyholders have never been less than 20% of the premiums paid.

THE FLOWERING BRANCH

Lovely as a young birch . . . your child in the morning of life.
Suddenly, into the budding grove, come the chill winds of war.

M. STEINERT & SONS

JEROME F. MURPHY, President
162 BOYLSTON STREET BOSTON

A fire is sweeping the earth, and free people are fighting it. You think of your sensitive children—born into this time of conflict.

What will war's inevitable restrictions do to their personalities?

Thousands of Steinway owners know that children can face the future with unconquerable spirit . . . if you prepare the heart and mind now.

For the Steinway helps build the individual. It instructs, enlightens, entertains. It brings out the best in the child. . . . And for beauty of tone, and for stamina, the Steinway is unsurpassed in the world of music.

JORDAN MARSH COMPANY

HE overture to a long and distinguished Jordan association with Boston's musical history echoes softly out of other June nights . . . in another century . . . with other audiences . . .

The great Jubilee of '69 with fifty thousand people listening to ten thousand voices singing . . . its successor in 1872, with twenty thousand voices, and the bands of Europe, and Johann Strauss setting the city waltzing . . .

Eben Jordan was the sponsor of all this, while his son listened to the echoes . . . and one day the son brought Grand Opera to Boston, built the great Opera House for its setting . . . gave Jordan Hall to the New England Conservatory . . . provided for the musical interests of Bostonians who would hear the echoes long after him . . .

During this week, "Jordan Night at the Pops" honors the musical memories of its founders. Perhaps they hear its echoes too, and nod in approval.

NATIVE VINTAGE WINES

We are in the business of buying and selling — among other things — American wines. In building up our list we have applied the same principles that went into the buying of our imported wines. We have studied the sources of supply on the ground, we have taken our time, we have tasted, compared, eliminated, selected. Rightly or wrongly we believe our offerings to be unsurpassed both from the point of view of quality and satisfaction. We recommend the Inglenook, Wente Bros. and Widmer's wines listed in the Pops Menu under "Selected Vintage Wines."

S. S. P. GOLD COAST WINES

S.S.P. Gold Coast Wines are American wines of established reputation, carefully selected and bottled under our own House label. On the Pops menu.

★ GREAT WESTERN CHAMPAGNE

★ Today Great Western New York State Champagne is unquestionably the best known Champagne in America. It is a true Champagne made by the French method of slow fermentation in the bottle. From the 83-year-old cellars of the Pleasant Valley Wine Co. On the Pops menu.

★ GOLD COAST VERMOUTH

★ We offer our Gold Coast American Vermouth, which we believe may be used satisfactorily in place of imported. Dry or Sweet.

★ OVERLAND CIGARS

★ No other cigar we have offered in our existence of 112 years has so readily met the approval of those who want a mild cigar of quality for everyday use. Finest imported Cuban tobacco filler in a delicate Sumatra wrapper gives a delicious combination of flavor.

BLENDED SCOTCH WHISKY

Glen Garry is an outstanding blend of aged Scotch Whiskies, selected and blended by experts whose skill is proven by the soft, mellow purity of flavor of this choice Scotch. The youngest whisky in the bottle has been matured in wood for 8 years before being bottled. 86.8 proof. Imported by S. S. Pierce Co. for 50 years.

Today's task for American industry is all-out war production. The splendid record it is making will hasten the day when mills and factories will again be manufacturing goods for peacetime consumption.

When this time comes, those who today are maintaining contact with their old customers will find it easiest to make the change. There is no better way of keeping this contact than with carefully planned and prepared

The Geo. H. Ellis Co. is equipped to plan and produce effective customer contacts in the form of folders, booklets, manuals, and house magazines. These avenues of customer approach have been our forte through seventy years' experience, and we stand ready to collaborate with American business in the reconstruction period ahead.

POP-OVERS

"NUTCRACKER" SUITE is one of those universally acknowledged treasures which began with a pretty tepid reception (in 1892). Originally these dainty morsels were part of a complete score for a ballet of the same name.

AVE MARIA. In 1722, John Sebastian Bach completed a volume of twenty-four preludes and fugues which he entitled "The Well-Tempered Clavier, in all the tones and semitones. . . . For the use and practice of young musicians who desire to learn, as well as for those who are already skilled in this study, by way of amusement." More than a century later, Charles Gounod borrowed the first prelude in this book as an accompaniment, mated it with a melody of his own and a sacred text, and the "Ave Maria" resulted.

TRIUMPHAL MARCH FROM "AIDA." Rhadames, brilliant young Egyptian general, returns victorious from an expedition against the Ethiopians.

BARTERED BRIDE—BEDRICH SMETANA. Annoyance was the inspiration of this opera, so praised for its Czech flavor—annoyance, and not patriotic pride in Czech folk tunes. Smetana himself is responsible for that explanation. In commenting on the esteem he had won for himself by this opera as a champion of musical composition in the idiom of his native land, he wrote that he had not begun the work as a matter of taking up a national cause. He was so disappointed and angry, he said, when music that he wrote after studies at Gothenburg had been considered too German, that he wrote "The Bartered Bride" in revenge, to prove that he could compose in definitely Czech vein. Nevertheless, the characters of this opera are considered by the Czechs themselves to sing, dance, and otherwise behave with perfect authenticity. Recent revivals of the opera in this country have delighted American critics and audiences.

INVITATION TO THE DANCE. Orchestrated by Berlioz from a piano solo of Weber. The plot, as told by Weber himself: First appearance of the dancers. The lady's evasive reply. His pressing invitation. Her consent. He begins conversation. Her reply. He speaks with greater warmth. The sympathetic agreement. He addresses her with regard to the dance. Her answer. They take their places. Waiting for the commencement of the dance. The conclusion of the dance, his thanks, her reply, and their retirement.

MARCHE SLAVE (Slavic—not Slave—March). Written by Tchaikovsky in 1876. Commissioned for, but played more than year after, a concert for the benefit of Serbs wounded in the war between Serbia and Turkey. The sombre theme which gives the special mood and Oriental orchestral color to the march was based by the composer on the Serb folk-song, "Come, My Dearest, Why So Sad This Morning?" The second principal theme is, of course, Alexis Lvov's hymn, "God Preserve the Czar," composed at the command of Nicholas I. in 1833, and ordered by him to be adopted by the Russian Army.

"CARMEN." Bizet, when about to embark on composing the opera, journeyed no farther than the Library of the Paris Conservatory. There, his studies of Spanish music began, not with listening to its native players, but with writing on a slip of paper, "I request a list of the Spanish songs in the possession of the library."

IRISH TUNE FROM COUNTY DERRY. Long ago it was known as "Farewell to Cucullain," as Kreisler calls it in his violin transcription.

The Swiss musicologist, Karl Nef, observes: "It has been said that Irish folk music is, on the whole, the finest that exists; that for sheer beauty of melody, Schubert, Mozart, and Irish folk songs constitute a triad unchallenged in the whole range of art."

GOLD SEAL

NEW YORK STATE

Sparkling Burgundy*

Gold Seal produces two champagnes—Special Dry and Brut. They are produced by the traditional French method of natural fermentation in the bottle. Special Dry is sparkling with a semi-sweet bouquet to please the popular taste. Brut is a distinctly dry champagne with fine bouquet that appeals to the connoisseur. It has all the natural flavor of the choicest grapes.

Gold Seal Sparkling Burgundy is a glorious blend of choice red wines. Rich, red and robust, its dainty, sparkling, moderately sweet bouquet makes it a very popular dinner wine.

Gold Seal's sparkling and still wines are produced in the "Champagne District of America."

Today's Great Piano

One by one the great piano masters of the present generation choose the Baldwin. This choice is made by ear and by touch rather than by tradition. This growing preference for the Baldwin is in part because its makers do not rest upon old laurels but continue, year after year, their never-ending search for perfection.

*The Boston "Pops" Orchestra
uses the Baldwin piano exclusively*

He takes advantage of busier-than-ever families and visits when he knows you're not at home. P.M. he may jimmy a window, or A.M. roll up in a truck and bear off household property (more valuable to him and to you because of its present scarcity) under the innocent guise of cleaner or furniture mover.

You can guard yourself from this, however, and be free from worry through American Mutual's $1,000 Blanket Theft policy — it covers all your personal and household property both at and away from your residence, includes $100 on cash, $500 on securities and War Stamps. In New England the annual cost is $15 in a private dwelling — $18.50 in an apartment.

THE FLOWERING BRANCH

Lovely as a young birch . . . your child in the morning of life.
Suddenly, into the budding grove, come the chill winds of war.

M. STEINERT & SONS

JEROME F. MURPHY, President
162 BOYLSTON STREET BOSTON

A fire is sweeping the earth, and free people are fighting it. You think of your sensitive children — born into this time of conflict.

What will war's inevitable restrictions do to their personalities?

Thousands of Steinway owners know that children can face the future with an conquerable spirit . . . if you prepare the heart and mind now.

For the Steinway helps build the individual. It instructs, enlightens, entertains. It brings out the best in the child. . . And for beauty of tone, and for stamina, the Steinway is unsurpassed in the world of music.

NATIVE VINTAGE WINES

We are in the business of buying and selling — among other things — American wines. In building up our list we have applied the same principles that went into the buying of our imported wines. We have studied the sources of supply on the ground, we have taken our time, we have tasted, compared, eliminated, selected. Rightly or wrongly we believe our offerings to be unsurpassed both from the point of view of quality and satisfaction. We recommend the Inglenook, Wente Bros. and Widmer's wines listed in the Pops Menu under "Selected Vintage Wines."

S. S. P. GOLD COAST WINES

S.S.P. Gold Coast Wines are American wines of established reputation, carefully selected and bottled under our own House label. On the Pops menu.

★ GREAT WESTERN CHAMPAGNE

★ GOLD COAST VERMOUTH

★ We offer our Gold Coast American Vermouth, which we believe may be used satisfactorily in place of imported. Dry or Sweet.

★ OVERLAND CIGARS

★ No other cigar we have offered in our existence of 112 years has so readily met the approval of those who want a mild cigar of quality for everyday use. Finest imported Cuban tobacco filler in a delicate Sumatra wrapper gives a delicious combination of flavor.

BLENDED SCOTCH WHISKY

Glen Garry is an outstanding blend of aged Scotch Whiskies, selected and blended by experts whose skill is proven by the soft, mellow purity of flavor of this choice Scotch. The youngest whisky in the bottle has been matured in wood for 8 years before being bottled. 86.8 proof. Imported by S. S. Pierce Co. for 50 years.

PLAN FOR TOMORROW . . . today

Today's task for American industry is all-out war production. The splendid record it is making will hasten the day when mills and factories will again be manufacturing goods for peacetime consumption.

When this time comes, those who today are maintaining contact with their old customers will find it easiest to make the change. There is no better way of keeping this contact than with carefully planned and prepared

The Geo. H. Ellis Co. is equipped to plan and produce effective customer contacts in the form of folders, booklets, manuals, and house magazines. These avenues of customer approach have been our forte through seventy years' experience, and we stand ready to collaborate with American business in the reconstruction period ahead.

POP-OVERS

ENTRANCE OF THE GUESTS. They have been called together in the singers' hall of Wartburg castle, to hear Tannhäuser and Wolfram contest in the knightly accomplishment of song improvisation.

"UNFINISHED" SYMPHONY. In sheer beauty of poetic expression—in exquisiteness of tone color; the wonderful matching, contrasting, and interplay of strings and woodwinds; in continuous power to stir poignant responses in the listener—this is a complete masterpiece. It is "unfinished" only in the sense that Schubert entitled it "Symphony in B minor," but completed only two movements, instead of the four conventionally required of a symphony. A few measures for a third movement were left by Schubert—some scored for instruments, some sketched in preliminary piano form. Why the composition was abandoned remains a mystery after much research. It is possible that Schubert felt the work to be artistically complete with the two movements.

LIEBESTRAUM. This excellent orchestration of Liszt's piano solo is a reminder that its creator, Victor Herbert, had serious musical gifts, abetted by thorough training at Stuttgart Conservatorium. The beloved Irish-born composer of American musical comedies also wrote 'cello concerti, orchestral suites, and a symphonic poem.

RIDE OF THE VALKYRIES.

Act Three of "Die Walküre" (The Valkyrie) opens with this music.

It betokens the assembling, mounted on winged horses, of Brünnhilde and her eight sister-Valkyries—the War God Wotan's warrior daughters, whose mission is to gather up heroes slain in battle, and ride up through the skies with them to Valhalla, heaven of heroes in the old Teutonic myths.

Motifs in the music actually symbolize the neighing and pawing of the winged steeds, amid the re-echoed cries of the Valkyries to each other.

SEMPER FIDELIS. Perhaps the most far-reaching act of Chester A. Arthur as twenty-second President of the United States was an order to his Marine Band leader, John Philip Sousa. For as a result the world gained this march masterpiece.

At White House receptions, held in the East Room, musicians had customarily played "Hail to the Chief" to announce the approach of the Chief Executive.

"Neither I nor any bandmaster before me had dared to break the precedent," Sousa recounts in his biography, "Marching Along."

"President Arthur left his guests in the East Room one evening, and coming out into the corridor beckoned to me.

"What piece did you play when we went in to dinner?" he asked.

"Hail to the Chief," Mr. President.

"Do you consider it a suitable air?"

"No, sir," I answered. "It was selected long ago on account of its name, and not on account of its character. It is a boat song, and lacks modern military character either for reception or a parade."

"Then change it!" said he, and walked away.

"I wrote the 'Presidential Polonaise' for White House indoor affairs, and the 'Semper Fidelis' March for review purposes outdoors. The latter is the official march adopted by the Marine Corps, by order of the general commanding."

THE FLIGHT OF THE BUMBLE-BEE. The insect is an enchanted prince, hero of Rimsky-Korsakoff's opera, "The Fairy Tale of Tsar Saltan."

Champagnes and Sparkling Burgundy

Gold Seal produces two champagnes—Special Dry and Brut. They are produced by the traditional French method of natural fermentation in the bottle. Special Dry is sparkling with a semi-sweet bouquet to please the popular taste. Brut is a distinctly dry champagne with fine bouquet that appeals to the connoisseur. It has all the natural flavor of the choicest grapes.

Gold Seal Sparkling Burgundy is a glorious blend of choice red wines. Rich, red and robust, its dainty, sparkling, moderately sweet bouquet makes it a very popular dinner wine.

Gold Seal's sparkling and still wines are produced in the "Champagne District of America."

Today's Great Piano

One by one the great piano masters of the present generation choose the Baldwin. This choice is made by ear and by touch rather than by tradition. This growing preference for the Baldwin is in part because its makers do not rest upon old laurels but continue, year after year, their never-ending search for perfection.

1500 HOMES A NIGHT!

Yes — that's the number of burglarized homes in America every night. Pity the hard-working burglar! But he's doing nicely — thanks to the increased value through scarcity of many personal and household items which make your home so inviting to him and which materially increase your chance of loss.

You can protect yourself on this score and be free from worry through American Mutual's $1000 Blanket Theft policy. This policy covers all your personal and household property both at and away from your residence and includes $100 on cash and $500 on securities and War Bonds and Stamps.

In New England the annual cost is $15 in a private dwelling — $18.50 in an apartment.

STEINWAY THE INSTRUMENT OF THE IMMORTALS

M. STEINERT & SONS

JEROME F. MURPHY, President
162 BOYLSTON STREET BOSTON

A fire is sweeping the earth, and free people are fighting it. You think of your sensitive children — born into this time of conflict.

What will war's inevitable restrictions do to their personalities?

Thousands of Steinway owners know that children can face the future with unconquerable spirit . . . if you prepare the heart and mind now.

For the Steinway helps build the individual. It instructs, enlightens, entertains. It brings out the best in the child. . . And for beauty of tone, and for stamina, the Steinway is unsurpassed in the world of music.

Musical Inter- ludes in Boston

By H. EARLE JOHNSON

A charming picture of culture in Boston at the end of the eighteenth and beginning of the nineteenth centuries, with particular emphasis on musical life in the city. Dr. Johnson records the music which was performed and published, the artists who appeared, the critics, teachers, and publishers who were active; and his narrative is amply documented with programs of performances and contemporary newspaper advertisements and critiques. A book which every Boston music-lover should own.

NATIVE VINTAGE WINES

We are in the business of buying and selling — among other things — American wines. In building up our list we have applied the same principles that went into the buying of our imported wines. We have studied the sources of supply on the ground, we have taken our time, we have tasted, compared, eliminated, selected. Rightly or wrongly we believe our offerings to be unsurpassed both from the point of view of quality and satisfaction. We recommend the Inglenook, Wente Bros. and Widmer's wines listed in the Pops Menu under "Selected Vintage Wines."

S. S. P. GOLD COAST WINES

S.S.P. Gold Coast Wines are American wines of established reputation, carefully selected and bottled under our own House label. On the Pops menu.

★ GREAT WESTERN CHAMPAGNE

★ Today Great Western New York State Champagne is unquestionably the best known Champagne in America. It is a true Champagne made by the French method of slow fermentation in the bottle. From the 83-year-old cellars of the Pleasant Valley Wine Co. On the Pops menu.

★ GOLD COAST VERMOUTH

★ We offer our Gold Coast American Vermouth, which we believe may be used satisfactorily in place of imported. Dry or Sweet.

★ OVERLAND CIGARS

★ No other cigar we have offered in our existence of 112 years has so readily met the approval of those who want a mild cigar of quality for everyday use. Finest imported Cuban tobacco filler in a delicate Sumatra wrapper gives a delicious combination of flavor.

BLENDED SCOTCH WHISKY

Glen Garry is an outstanding blend of aged Scotch Whiskies, selected and blended by experts whose skill is proven by the soft, mellow purity of flavor of this choice Scotch. The youngest whisky in the bottle has been matured in wood for 8 years before being bottled. 86.8 proof. Imported by S. S. Pierce Co. for 50 years.

PLAN FOR TOMORROW . . . today

Today's task for American industry is all-out war production. The splendid record it is making will hasten the day when mills and factories will again be manufacturing goods for peacetime consumption.

When this time comes, those who today are maintaining contact with their old customers will find it easiest to make the change. There is no better way of keeping this contact than with carefully planned and prepared mail advertising. It is direct and personal. Nothing else can perform the task so efficiently.

The Geo. H. Ellis Co. is equipped to plan and produce effective customer contacts in the form of folders, booklets, manuals, and house magazines. These avenues of customer approach have been our forte through seventy years' experience, and we stand ready to collaborate with American business in the reconstruction period ahead.

"FINLANDIA," TONE POEM.

When Sibelius composed this score, in 1894, his native land was under the yoke of Russia. The deeply patriotic spirit of the music stirred the Finns to such a pitch of excitement that the Russian authorities forbade further performances in Finland. Even now, and to a listener not of Finnish blood, the music may easily convey the suggestion of an oppressed people brooding over their wrongs, then arising and striking for freedom.

OVERTURE TO "THE BARBER OF SEVILLE."

There is a legend that Rossini worked on the composition of this opera while in bed, and that when a breeze whisked the overture out the window, he was too lazy to rise and retrieve it. Whatever the truth of the matter, Rossini borrowed an overture for "The Barber" from among his previous operas. This is attested by the earlier editions of the music used by the Pops orchestra. Their title-pages read: "Overture to 'Elisabeth, Queen of England.'" In turn, the "Elisabeth" overture had been borrowed from "Aureliano in Palmira."

AUSTRIAN PEASANT DANCES. This fetching suite has been neatly instrumented by Max Schoenherr from peasant music of various provinces of Austria. But its naive tunes and forthright rhythms bring memories of one of those itinerant German bands gone from our streets since 1914, and wistfully regretted by many.

SECOND CONCERTO — RACHMANINOFF (1873-1943). First American performance with the composer as soloist was with the Boston Symphony Orchestra in New York, on December 3, 1908. The work is notable for its subtle exploitation of the piano's tonal resources.

Sharing with No. 3 the highest critical esteem among its creator's four piano concertos, this work marked a triumph over self. Rachmaninoff had fallen into such a state of despondency over his fancied lack of artistic progress, that he believed he never would be able to go on composing. His doctor convinced him otherwise, and renewed belief of the composer in himself produced this masterpiece — dedicated to the doctor.

JESUS MARIA SANROMÁ. Born of Catalanian parents in 1903, under the American flag, in Puerto Rico. A boy prodigy as pianist and even as theatre orchestra conductor, his powers attracted the attention of the island government, which sent him to Boston in 1917 to complete his musical education. Studied there with Antoinette Szumowska, then in Paris with Cortot and Berlin with Schnabel. Has played in those cities, and London, Paris, Vienna, Madrid, Barcelona, Mexico City, and various cities of the United States, Canada and Puerto Rico.

DIVERTISSEMENT. The old game of quotations is seldom so gaily applied to music, as it is in the course of this work. Ibert, however, is of serious enough character to have been appointed in 1937 to head the Villa Medici, residence in Rome of the French music students who win the Prix de Rome. He has been one of the winners.

BY THE BEAUTIFUL BLUE DANUBE is the correct title not always correctly quoted. It is the first line of the poem from which the composer first evolved the music as a waltz-song for male chorus and orchestra.

WARSAW CONCERTO — RICHARD ADDINSELL. From music written for the English film, "Dangerous Moonlight," shown in the United States as "Suicide Squadron." The hero is a Polish pianist who fights beside the British as an aviator.

Champagnes and Sparkling Burgundy

Gold Seal produces two champagnes—Special Dry and Brut. They are produced by the traditional French method of natural fermentation in the bottle. Special Dry is sparkling with a semi-sweet bouquet to please the popular taste. Brut is a distinctly dry champagne with fine bouquet that appeals to the connoisseur. It has all the natural flavor of the choicest grapes.

Gold Seal Sparkling Burgundy is a glorious blend of choice red wines. Rich, red and robust, its dainty, sparkling, moderately sweet bouquet makes it a very popular dinner wine.

Gold Seal's sparkling and still wines are produced in the "Champagne District of America."

---

One by one the great piano masters of the present generation choose the Baldwin. This choice is made by ear and by touch rather than by tradition. This growing preference for the Baldwin is in part because its makers do not rest upon old laurels but continue, year after year, their never-ending search for perfection.

Musical Inter- ludes in Boston

By H. EARLE JOHNSON

A charming picture of culture in Boston at the end of the eighteenth and beginning of the nineteenth centuries, with particular emphasis on musical life in the city. Dr. Johnson records the music which was performed and published, the artists who appeared, the critics, teachers, and publishers who were active; and his narrative is amply documented with programs of performances and contemporary newspaper advertisements and critiques. A book which every Boston music-lover should own.

THE FLOWERING BRANCH

Lovely as a young birch . . . your child in the morning of life.
 Suddenly, into the budding grove, come the chill winds of war.

STEINWAY THE INSTRUMENT OF THE IMMORTALS

M. STEINERT & SONS

JEROME F. MURPHY, President
 162 BOYLSTON STREET BOSTON

A fire is sweeping the earth, and free people are fighting it. You think of your sensitive children — born into this time of conflict.

What will war's inevitable restrictions do to their personalities?

Thousands of Steinway owners know that children can face the future with unconquerable spirit . . . if you prepare the heart and mind now.

For the Steinway helps build the individual. It instructs, enlightens, entertains. It brings out the best in the child. . . . And for beauty of tone, and for stamina, the Steinway is unsurpassed in the world of music.

NATIVE VINTAGE WINES

We are in the business of buying and selling — among other things — American wines. In building up our list we have applied the same principles that went into the buying of our imported wines. We have studied the sources of supply on the ground, we have taken our time, we have tasted, compared, eliminated, selected. Rightly or wrongly we believe our offerings to be unsurpassed both from the point of view of quality and satisfaction. We recommend the Inglenook, Wente Bros. and Widmer's wines listed in the Pops Menu under "Selected Vintage Wines."

S. S. P. GOLD COAST WINES

S.S.P. Gold Coast Wines are American wines of established reputation, carefully selected and bottled under our own House label. On the Pops menu.

★ GREAT WESTERN CHAMPAGNE

★ Today Great Western New York State Champagne is unquestionably the best known Champagne in America. It is a true Champagne made by the French method of slow fermentation in the bottle. From the 83-year-old cellars of the Pleasant Valley Wine Co. On the Pops menu.

★ GOLD COAST VERMOUTH

★ We offer our Gold Coast American Vermouth, which we believe may be used satisfactorily in place of imported. Dry or Sweet.

★ OVERLAND CIGARS

★ No other cigar we have offered in our existence of 112 years has so readily met the approval of those who want a mild cigar of quality for everyday use. Finest imported Cuban tobacco filler in a delicate Sumatra wrapper gives a delicious combination of flavor.

BLENDED SCOTCH WHISKY

Glen Garry is an outstanding blend of aged Scotch Whiskies, selected and blended by experts whose skill is proven by the soft, mellow purity of flavor of this choice Scotch. The youngest whisky in the bottle has been matured in wood for 8 years before being bottled. 86.8 proof. Imported by S. S. Pierce Co. for 50 years.

OLD TIMERS' NIGHT AT THE POPS

SYMPHONY HALL . JULY 13, 1943

THE STAR-SPANGLED BANNER

*O say! can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watch'd, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rocket's red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there.
O say, does that Star-Spangled Banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?*

OLD TIMERS' NIGHT AT THE POPS

TA-RA-RA BOOM-DE-AY

A bright and stylish girl you see,
Belle of good society;
Not too strict, but rather free,
Yet as right as right can be.
Never forward, never bold,
Not too shy, and not too cold;
But the very thing, I'm told,
That in your arms you'd like to fold.
Ta-ra-ra boom-de-ay, ta-ra-ra boom-de-ay,
Ta-ra-ra boom-de-ay, ta-ra-ra boom-de-ay,
Ta-ra-ra boom-de-ay, ta-ra-ra boom-de-ay,
Ta-ra-ra boom-de-ay, ta-ra-ra boom-de-ay.

THE BOWERY

Oh, the night that I struck New York,
I went out for a quiet walk;
Folks that are on to the city say,
Better by far had I taken Broadway.
I was out to enjoy the sights,
There was the Bowery ablaze with lights;
I had one of the devil's own nights,
And I'll never go there any more.
The Bow'ry, the Bow'ry,
They say such things, and they do strange
things on the Bow'ry, the Bow'ry,

THE SIDEWALKS OF NEW YORK

East side, West side, all around the town,
The tots sang "Ring-a-Rosie,
London Bridge is falling down";
Boys and girls together, me and Mamie
O'Rourke,
Tripped the light fantastic

SWEET ROSIE O'GRADY

Sweet Rosie O'Grady, my dear little Rose,
You're my steady lady, 'most everyone knows;
And when we are married, how happy we'll be,
For I love sweet Rosie O'Grady, and Rosie
O'Grady loves me.

DAISY (On a bicycle built for two)

Daisy, Daisy, give me your answer true,
I'm half crazy all for the love of you.
It won't be a stylish marriage—
I can't afford a carriage;
But you'll look sweet upon the seat
Of a bicycle built for two.

WHILE THE BAND PLAYED ON

Casey would waltz with a strawberry blonde,
While the band played on.
He waltzed 'round the floor with the girl he adored,
While the band played on.
His head, it was loaded, it nearly exploded;
The poor girl, she shook with alarm.
He ne'er left the girl with the strawberry curl,

AFTER THE BALL

After the ball was over,
After the break of morn,
After the dancers' leaving,
After the stars are gone,
Many a heart is aching,
If you could read them all;
Many the hopes that have vanished
After the ball.

A HOT TIME IN THE OLD TOWN

When you hear dem bells go ding, ling, ling,
All join 'round and sweetly you must sing;
And when the verse am through, in the chorus
all join in —

WE'VE GOT 'EM ON THE RUN!

Words and Music by JACOBUS LANGENDOEN

Chorus:

The Jap — the Hun —
We've got 'em on the run!
They can't stand up against our might,
We show 'em how the Yank can fight!
The Jap — the Hun —
We've got 'em on the run!
Hip hooray! Hip hip hooray!!
For the U. S. A., for the U. S. A.!
Hip hooray! Hip hip hooray!!
For the grand old U. S. A.!

SONG FEST, Medley

PACK UP YOUR TROUBLES

Pack up your troubles in your old kit-bag,
While you've a lucifer to light your fag,
Smile, boys, that's the style.
What's the use of worrying?
It never was worth while.
So pack up your troubles in your old kit-bag,

SMILES

There are smiles that make us happy,
There are smiles that make us blue;
There are smiles that steal away the tear-drops
As the sunbeams steal away the dew.
There are smiles that have a tender meaning
That the eyes of love alone may see,
But the smiles that fill my life with sunshine
Are the smiles that you give to me.

TILL WE MEET AGAIN

Smile the while you kiss me sad adieu,
When the clouds roll by, I'll come to you.
Then the skies will seem more blue
Down in lovers' lane, my dearie.
Wedding bells will ring so merrily,
Ev'ry tear will be a memory;
So wait and pray each night for me,
Till we meet again.

IN THE SHADE OF THE OLD APPLE TREE

In the shade of the old apple tree,
Where the love in your eyes I could see,
When the voice that I heard, like the song of the bird,
Seem'd to whisper sweet music to me;
I could hear the dull buzz of the bee,
In the blossoms as you said to me,
"With a heart that is true,
I'll be waiting for you,
In the shade of the old apple tree."

MY WILD IRISH ROSE

My wild Irish rose, the sweetest flow'r that grows,
You may search ev'rywhere, but none can compare
With my wild Irish rose.
My wild Irish rose, the dearest flow'r that
grows,
take

TAKE ME OUT TO THE BALL GAME

Take me out to the ball game, take me out with
the crowd,
Buy me some peanuts and cracker-jack,
I don't care if I never get back!
Let me root root root for the home-team,
If they don't win it's a shame—
For it's one, two, three strikes.
You're out at the old ball game.

SWEET ADELINE

Sweet Adeline, my Adeline,
At night, dear heart, for you I pine;
In all my dreams your fair face beams;

PUT ON YOUR OLD GREY BONNET

Put on your old grey bonnet,
With the blue ribbon on it,
While I hitch old Dobbin to the shay,
And through the fields of clover
We will drive to Dover
On our golden wedding day.

THERE IS A TAVERN IN THE TOWN

There is a tavern in the town, in the town
And there my true love sits him down, sits
him down
And takes his ease 'mid laughter free
And never, never thinks of me.
Fare thee well, for I must leave thee,
Do not let this parting grieve thee,
And remember that the best of friends must
part, must part.
Adieu, adieu, kind friends, adieu, adieu, adieu,
I can no longer stay with you, stay with you;
I'll hang my harp on a weeping willow tree,

MAINE STEIN SONG

Fill the steins to dear old Maine,
Shout till the rafters ring!
Stand and drink a toast once again!
Let every loyal Maine man sing.
Then—drink to all the happy hours,
Drink to the careless days,
Drink to Maine, our Alma Mater,
The college of our hearts always.

To the trees, to the sky!
To the spring in its glorious happiness,
To the youth, to the fire,
To the life that is moving and calling us!
To the Gods, to the Fates,
To the rulers of men and their destinies;
To the lips, to the eyes,
To the girls who will love us some day!

Oh, fill the steins to dear old Maine,
Shout till the rafters ring!
Stand and drink a toast once again!
Let every loyal Maine man sing.
Then—drink to all the happy hours,
Drink to the careless days,
Drink to Maine, our Alma Mater,
The college of our hearts always.

LET ME CALL YOU SWEETHEART

Let me call you "Sweetheart"; I'm in love
with you;
Let me hear you whisper that you love me, too.
Keep the lovelight glowing in your eyes so true,
Let me call you "Sweetheart"; I'm in love
with you.

VICTOR HERBERT FAVORITES

ABSINTHE FRAPPÉ

from "It Happened in Nordland"

It will free you first from the burning thirst
That is born of a night of the bowl.
Like a sun 'twill rise through the inky skies
That so heavily hang o'er your soul.
At the first cool sip on your fever'd lip
You determine to live through the day;
Life's again worth while as with dawning smile,
You imbibe your absinthe frappé.

BECAUSE YOU'RE YOU from "The Red Mill"

Not that I am fair, dear,
Not that I am true,
Not my golden hair, dear,
Not my eyes of blue,
When we ask the reason
Words are all too few!
So I know I love you dear,
Because you're you!

WHEN YOU'RE AWAY from "The Only Girl"

When you're away, dear, how weary the lonesome hours!
Sunshine seems gray, dear! The fragrance has left the flow'rs.
Ever I hear you in seeming, whispering soft love words to me!
Hold me again to your heart! I love you alone!

I CAN'T DO THE SUM from "Babes in Toyland"

Put down six and carry two,
Oh, but this is hard to do!
You can think, and think, and think
Till your brains are numb!
I don't care what teacher says
I can't do the sum!

I'M FALLING IN LOVE WITH SOMEONE from "Naughty Marietta"

For I'm falling in love with someone,
Some one girl;
I'm falling in love with someone,
Head awhirl;
Yes, I'm falling in love with someone,
Plain to see,
I'm sure I could love someone madly,
If someone would only love me!

GYPSY LOVE SONG from "Fortune Teller"

Slumber on, my little gypsy sweetheart,
Dream of the field and the grove.
Can you hear me, hear me in that dreamland
Where your fancies rove?
Slumber on, my little gypsy sweetheart,
Wild little woodland dove,
Can you hear the song that tells you
All my heart's true love?

ITALIAN STREET SONG
from "Naughty Marietta"

Zing, zing, zizzy, zizzy, zing, zing boom, boom
aye.
Zing, zing, zizzy, zizzy, zing, zing, mandolinas gay.
Zing, zing, zizzy, zizzy, zing, zing, boom, boom,
aye.
La, la, la, ha! ha! ha! zing, boom, aye,
La, la, la, ha! ha! ha! zing, boom, aye!

KISS ME AGAIN
from "Mlle. Modiste"

Sweet summer breeze, whispering trees,
Stars shining softly above;
Roses in bloom, wafted perfume,
Sleepy birds dreaming of love.
Safe in your arms, far from alarms,
Daylight shall come but in vain.
Tenderly press'd close to my breast,
Kiss me, kiss me again!

THE IRISH HAVE A GREAT DAY TONIGHT
from "Eileen"

'Tis a great day tonight for the Irish
For the cause we fought for and died.
And the time is soon to be
When you'll see old Ireland free!
'Tis the land of our love and our pride!
We despise and defy our oppressors
And their tyrant laws we will fight.
But as fast as they can make 'em,
Begorra, we can break 'em.
Sure the Irish have a great day tonight!

HOME ON THE RANGE

O give me a home where the buffalo roam,
Where the deer and the antelope play;
Where seldom is heard a discouraging word
And the skies are not cloudy all day.
Home, home on the range,
Where the deer and the antelope play;
Where seldom is heard a discouraging word
And the skies are not cloudy all day.

AMERICA SINGS

A HOT TIME IN THE OLD TOWN

When you hear dem bells go ding, ling, ling.
All join 'round and sweetly you must sing;
And when the verse am through, in the chorus
all join in—
There'll be a hot time in the old town tonight!

I'VE BEEN WORKIN' ON THE RAILROAD

Oh, I've been workin' on the railroad,
All the live-long day.
I've been workin' on the railroad,
Just to pass the time away.
Don't you hear the whistle blowin'?
It was there I knew, that you loved me true,
Rise up so early in the morn,
Don't you hear the captain shouting:
"Dinah, blow your horn."

DOWN BY THE OLD MILL STREAM

Dowu by the old mill stream, where I first met you.
With your eyes of blue, dressed in gingham too,
It was there I knew, that you loved me true,
You were sixteen, my village queen,
Down by the old mill stream.

IN THE GOOD OLD SUMMER TIME

In the good old summer time,
In the good old summer time,
Strolling through the shady lanes
With your "baby mine";
You hold her hand and she holds yours,
And that's a very good sign
That she's your tootsy-wootsy in
The good old summer time.

JINGLE, BELLS

Dashing through the snow,
In a one-horse open sleigh;
O'er the fields we go,
Laughing all the way;
Bells on bobtail ring,
Making spirits bright;
What fun it is to ride and sing,
A sleighing song tonight!
Jingle, bells! jingle, bells!
Jingle all the way!
Oh! what fun it is to ride

WHEN IRISH EYES ARE SMILING

When Irish eyes are smiling,
Sure it's like a morn in Spring.
In the lilt of Irish laughter
You can hear the angels sing.
When Irish hearts are happy,
All the world seems bright and gay.
And when Irish eyes are smiling,
Sure they steal your heart away.

GOD BLESS AMERICA

God bless America,
Land that I love,
Stand beside her and guide her
Thru the night with a light from above;
From the mountains, to the prairies,
To the oceans white with foam,
God bless America
My home sweet home.

PLAN FOR TOMORROW . . . today

Today's task for American industry is all-out war production. The splendid record it is making will hasten the day when mills and factories will again be manufacturing goods for peacetime consumption.

When this time comes, those who today are maintaining contact with their old customers will find it easiest to make the change. There is no better way of keeping this contact than with carefully planned and prepared mail advertising. It is direct and personal. Nothing else can perform the task so efficiently.

The Geo. H. Ellis Co. is equipped to plan and produce effective customer contacts in the form of folders, booklets, manuals, and house magazines. These avenues of customer approach have been our forte through seventy years' experience, and we stand ready to collaborate with American business in the reconstruction period ahead.

"HEBRIDES" OVERTURE (ALSO KNOWN AS "TINGAL'S CAVE"). Such mastery of orchestral color, such power to evoke a mood, does Mendelssohn reach in this score, that Wagner showed boundless enthusiasm for it, listening to it over and over on the piano.

An actual Scottish journey inspired the composer. His music suggests the loneliness of the cave, the movement of the sea, the cries of the seabirds, the wail of the wind and its increasing agitation of the water, then a return to the solitude of the cave.

OVERTURE TO "MIGNON" — AMBROISE THOMAS.

A dancer in a group of gypsy entertainers wandering through Germany, Mignon remembers no associates but these, no family of her own. Actually, she is of noble birth, was kidnapped as a baby. Her tragic situation as a gypsy captive is reflected in the opening strains of the overture.

Next is heard a harp-like motif. This symbolizes the aged and temporarily deranged harper, Lotario, who befriends her.

In the lovely slow melody, Mignon speaks of the beautiful warm southern country where she vaguely remembers once living: "Knowest Thou That Land?"

Mignon's rival for the affections of the hero, Wilhelm Meister, is the actress Filina. She is represented in the overture by the song in which she describes herself in her role in "A Midsummer Night's Dream": "I am flaxen-haired Titania."

The plot of the opera ends with Wilhelm's discovery that he loves the long-worshipping Mignon; the mental recovery of Lotario, who is revealed as not a harper but a nobleman, and his discovery that Mignon is the daughter whose kidnapping had crazed him.

CONCERTO FOR PIANO AND ORCHESTRA, No. 1, TCHAIKOVSKY. It almost defies belief that this masterpiece was hotly condemned as musically worthless and pianistically unplayable, by Nicholas Rubinstein, when the composer sought his judgment as friend and mentor. As a result, Tchaikovsky struck the name of this savage critic from the dedication, and substituted that of the celebrated German pianist and conductor, Hans von Bülow. The latter wrote that he found the ideas original, noble and powerful; the form mature, the style distinguished.

To Boston went the honor of the world's first performance of the concerto. With von Bülow as soloist, and a small orchestra assembled and conducted by Benjamin J. Lang, it was introduced October 25, 1875, in Music Hall. (Its first performance in Russia or elsewhere in Europe did not take place until the following month, in St. Petersburg.)

For the lively second theme of the first movement, Tchaikovsky has acknowledged his indebtedness to a blind beggar whom he heard sing the tune at a country fair. In the middle of the second movement appears a waltz which the composer is said to have picked up in a dance hall. A peasant-like dance is heard toward the beginning of the third movement.

Bostonian enthusiasm for the work was unbounded, von Bülow reported by cable to the composer. The message raised Tchaikovsky so far from his previous dejection over Rubinstein's opinion of the music that he spent his last ready cash replying. At a repetition of the performance, the Finale was encored, as Bülow hastened to write the composer, sending newspaper clippings.

Elatedly, Tchaikovsky passed the news along to Rimsky-Korsakov, with this comment:

"Think of the healthy appetites these Americans must have: each time Bülow was obliged to repeat the whole Finale of my concerto! Nothing like this happens in our country!"

Champagnes and Sparkling Burgundy

Gold Seal produces two champagnes—Special Dry and Brut. They are produced by the traditional French method of natural fermentation in the bottle. Special Dry is sparkling with a semi-sweet bouquet to please the popular taste. Brut is a distinctly dry champagne with fine bouquet that appeals to the connoisseur. It has all the natural flavor of the choicest grapes.

Gold Seal Sparkling Burgundy is a glorious blend of choice red wines. Rich, red and robust, its dainty, sparkling, moderately sweet bouquet makes it a very popular dinner wine.

Gold Seal's sparkling and still wines are produced in the "Champagne District of America."

Today's Great Piano

One by one the great piano masters of the present generation choose the Baldwin. This choice is made by ear and by touch rather than by tradition. This growing preference for the Baldwin is in part because its makers do not rest upon old laurels but continue, year after year, their never-ending search for perfection.

M. STEINERT & SONS

JEROME F. MURPHY, President
162 BOYLSTON STREET BOSTON

A fire is sweeping the earth, and free people are fighting it. You think of your sensitive children — born into this time of conflict.

What will war's inevitable restrictions do to their personalities?

Thousands of Steinway owners know that children can face the future with unconquerable spirit . . . if you prepare the heart and mind now.

For the Steinway helps build the individual. It instructs, enlightens, entertains. It brings out the best in the child. . . And for beauty of tone, and for stamina, the Steinway is unsurpassed in the world of music.

Musical Interludes in Boston

1795-1830

By H. EARLE JOHNSON

A charming picture of culture in Boston at the end of the eighteenth and beginning of the nineteenth centuries, with particular emphasis on musical life in the city. Dr. Johnson records the music which was performed and published, the artists who appeared, the critics, teachers, and publishers who were active; and his narrative is amply documented with programs of performances and contemporary newspaper advertisements and critiques. A book which every Boston music-lover should own.

NATIVE VINTAGE WINES

We are in the business of buying and selling — among other things — American wines. In building up our list we have applied the same principles that went into the buying of our imported wines. We have studied the sources of supply on the ground, we have taken our time, we have tasted, compared, eliminated, selected. Rightly or wrongly we believe our offerings to be unsurpassed both from the point of view of quality and satisfaction. We recommend the Inglenook, Wente Bros. and Widmer's wines listed in the Pops Menu under "Selected Vintage Wines."

S. S. P. GOLD COAST WINES

S.S.P. Gold Coast Wines are American wines of established reputation, carefully selected and bottled under our own House label. On the Pops menu.

GREAT WESTERN CHAMPAGNE

Today Great Western New York State Champagne is unquestionably the best known Champagne in America. It is a true Champagne made by the French method of slow fermentation in the bottle. From the 83-year-old cellars of the Pleasant Valley Wine Co. On the Pops menu.

GOLD COAST VERMOUTH

We offer our Gold Coast American Vermouth, which we believe may be used satisfactorily in place of imported. Dry or Sweet.

OVERLAND CIGARS

No other cigar we have offered in our existence of 112 years has so readily met the approval of those who want a mild cigar of quality for everyday use. Finest imported Cuban tobacco filler in a delicate Sumatra wrapper gives a delicious combination of flavor.

BLENDED SCOTCH WHISKY

Glen Garry is an outstanding blend of aged Scotch Whiskies, selected and blended by experts whose skill is proven by the soft, mellow purity of flavor of this choice Scotch. The youngest whisky in the bottle has been matured in wood for 8 years before being bottled. 86.8 proof. Imported by S. S. Pierce Co. for 50 years.

PLAN FOR TOMORROW . . . today

Today's task for American industry is all-out war production. The splendid record it is making will hasten the day when mills and factories will again be manufacturing goods for peacetime consumption.

When this time comes, those who today are maintaining contact with their old customers will find it easiest to make the change. There is no better way of keeping this contact than with carefully planned and prepared mail advertising. It is direct and personal. Nothing else can perform the task so efficiently.

The Geo. H. Ellis Co. is equipped to plan and produce effective customer contacts in the form of folders, booklets, manuals, and house magazines. These avenues of customer approach have been our forte through seventy years' experience, and we stand ready to collaborate with American business in the reconstruction period ahead.

Esplanade Concerts — 15th Season

ARTHUR FIEDLER, Founder and Conductor

MY DEAR POPS-GOERS:

Never in the last fifteen years have I felt that public-spirited citizens would join me with so much satisfaction in planning a season of Esplanade Concerts.

When in April there was uncertainty about the continuance of these concerts, there came a voluntary flood of endorsements and encouragement from civil, public and military leaders urging that these free concerts be undertaken. Last year it was possible to extend the length of the season. This year, by broadcasting the Saturday programs, the significance of the Esplanade Concerts will be further enlarged.

In cooperation with the Metropolitan District Commission, the starting time of the concerts has been advanced to 7:30 P.M. They will close at 9:00 P.M. and will comply with all dim-out regulations.

The season will open Thursday evening, July 22nd. With the one reservation concerning finances, it will continue nightly through August 18th, omitting Mondays. Four extra Wednesday morning concerts will be played for children.

I hope you agree with me that the Esplanade Concerts are more important than ever. Will you contribute what you can to their support?

Very truly yours,

Symphony Hall, Boston, Mass.
July 13, 1943

GOLD SEAL

Champagnes and Sparkling Burgundy

Gold Seal produces two champagnes—Special Dry and Brut. They are produced by the traditional French method of natural fermentation in the bottle. Special Dry is sparkling with a semi-sweet bouquet to please the popular taste. Brut is a distinctly dry champagne with fine bouquet that appeals to the connoisseur. It has all the natural flavor of the choicest grapes.

Gold Seal Sparkling Burgundy is a glorious blend of choice red wines. Rich, red and robust, its dainty, sparkling, moderately sweet bouquet makes it a very popular dinner wine.

Gold Seal's sparkling and still wines are produced in the "Champagne District of America."

Today's Great Piano

One by one the great piano masters of the present generation choose the Baldwin. This choice is made by ear and by touch rather than by tradition. This growing preference for the Baldwin is in part because its makers do not rest upon old laurels but continue, year after year, their never-ending search for perfection.

The Boston "Pops" Orchestra
uses the Baldwin piano exclusively
